Friday, 28th November 2025

Udyaan Bhawan, Sapru Marg, Lucknow

Value-chain development | Strengthening supply-chain | Promoting entrepreneurs
Cluster-based spices farming | Processing and market linkages

INTRODUCTION

India has long been considered as a land of spices and the Western Ghats region of the country is found to be the origin of many spices like black pepper, cardamom to name a few. Over the years, there has been a steady increase in the consumption of spices in the country as well as growth in exports. The purchasing power of the people is increasing and upwards movement in food chain would significantly increase per capita consumption.

Uttar Pradesh is not only the largest consuming market for spices, but also possess highest potential for production of variety of spices, especially in Bundelkhand region. As per the projections of the Department of Horticulture, the State offers huge opportunities for production, value addition, processing, organic farming and consumption of spices. Uttar Pradesh Government is keen to increase the production of spices and help entrepreneurs setup processing units at district levels for medium and small businesses.

This offers big opportunity for large companies and brands to collaborate for forward market linkages. Centre for Agriculture and Rural Development jointly with Department of Horticulture is organizing a day long 5th Edition of Spices Conference & Expo-2025 to bring all key stakeholders on one platform to showcase products and technologies and facilitate sourcing and supply chain and partnering for marketing and processing.
